there are lots of different sorts of electric equipment for massage on the marketplace today.

i also have some sacrum pain--right under the skin since only the absolute value of the elasticity is considered important, the convention has been to show price elasticity as a positive number.